BACKGROUND & PROFILE

Once upon a time when education has not become a tool to earn livelihood, it was not looked as a business. Profiteering had not crept into the field of education. Two Noble men with devotion, dedication and pure intentions to impart knowledge, established the first Educational Institution in 1926. They were Shree Hiralal Bapulal Kapadia (Popularly known as "H. B. Kapadia") and Shree Ramanlal Hiralal Kapadia (Popularly known as "R. H. Kapadia") and the institution was "The New High School."

Gradually the seed became a large banayan tree encompassing in its fold many schools and educational institutions. But with the passage of time the aim never got changed or diverted.

Here is a Group whose four Generations have been devoted to the philosophy of preaching and teaching to create civilized human being. They run 'Kapadia Group' schools in the city of Ahmedabad.

Many Alumni of the school have earned distinction as Doctors, Lawyers, Industrialists, Corporate Heads, Engineers, Social workers, Politicians and almost all & olds in the society, All shed luster on the name or their Alma Matter.

It is one of the few quality schools in the state imparting education in technical and commercial subjects besides traditional academic subjects.

For Teachers About Teachers

In India of yore, the teacher was held in the greatest esteem. A teacher plays a very important role. It is a noble role. He/She is a nation builder. He/She is expected to produce the right kind of citizen. An ideal teacher is a missionary. He/She has a burning zeal to spread the light of knowledge. He/She is fully aware of his/her noble role as the creator or the artist who has to design and share the lives and the character of his/her generation. His/Her mental reservoir is full of knowledge. He/She is the master of the subject which he/she teaches. He/She possesses a keen sense of justice and integrity. All what he/she says and does bears the imprint of truth and sincerity. He/She exhibits in his/her own pupil to imbibe and imitate. He/She wins the loyalty and respect of his/her students by love and service. In short, teacher is a hinge on which education turns.
